

Transitions

Central UMC Women's Bible Study

6:30~8:30pm
Mondays
Library

"Transitions" is a women's Bible Study which meets Monday evenings from 6:30-8:30 in the Library. This study group is intended for women who are facing those transitions that come when the children are almost out of the house and grown, when building your career transforms into making your career meaningful and contributing to the greater good, when facing an empty nest, when seeking to find meaning in your faith journey....and so much more. Come join other Central women and their friends in our Journey to be stronger, better, more faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

Our first study will be "Set Apart" by Jessica LaGrone, which is a dynamic six-week study of 1 and 2 Kings that examines the holy habits of the prophets and kings who were set apart by their close walk with God. Each week we will explore the central story of one of these intriguing men of God and the specific practice each observed, as well as what the Bible teaches about this practice. Book cost is $11.

Each of these characters was trying to follow God while carrying out his calling on earth. As we consider their example, we will discover that even prophets and kings struggled and grew in their faith through spiritual practices, and we will learn how to follow God's unique purposes for us in His Kingdom.

or more information, contact Sarah Harrelson at theharrelsonfive@gmail.com or Jane Smith at janelanfordsmith@gmail.com

